

NeXtime moves its European Logistics Centre

NeXtime believes Europe continues to have interesting long term expansion opportunities

NeXtime announces it will move to a new European Logistics Centre in Zaandam (near Amsterdam) in The Netherlands by the end of April.

NeXtime is a leading international company designing and manufacturing clocks. The company's decision to move has been made in light of Europe's considerable growth (potential) and to better serve NeXtime's customers in Europe.

Paul Krab, Sourcing and Supply Chain Manager of NeXtime, said that the new logistics centre is conveniently located with access to major motorways and close to Schiphol airport and the Sea Port of Amsterdam. The new centre comprises 7,000 m² of warehousing space. NeXtime is committed to improving its services and the operational excellence expected from its customers." Paul said. "The convenient location will allow us to expand delivery options, ensuring a cost-efficient logistics chain for products. Logistics services have become a key driver of our business growth over the past few years. This new facility allows us to provide more efficient, expanded services for our existing customers and offers exciting new growth opportunities."

NeXtime's EMEA Logistics Centre is located at Mondial Logistics B.V. at the following address:

Vredeweg 46
1505 HH Zaandam
(Industrial Zone "Achtersluispolder")

Founded in 1970, NeXtime is the worldwide leader in clocks. The company offers a wide range of wall clocks, table clocks and alarm clocks designed for people to enjoy and looking how time passes by more fun.
