NeXtime's wheel of fortune will also take center stage in the upcoming trade show "Ambiente" in Frankfurt, starting 12 February. You can find NeXtime in Hall 11.1, Stand E49.

"It was a lot of fun to give away prizes and discounts to celebrate our 40th anniversary," said Marije Guillaumond, marketing manager of NeXtime. "And we look forward to take the wheel of fortune to Frankfurt. Every time someone spinned the wheel of fortune in Paris it created a lot of excitement and we expect the same in Frankfurt. It is not only about celebrating our anniversary but also showing our exciting new collection and how much fun it is at NeXtime; and extend this fun to our much valued customers and other visitors to our booth". Marije also promised that there were other activities planned celebrating NeXtime's 40th anniversary in 2010 and that they will be announced on the (new and restyled) company's website: www.nextime.eu
